

How to Fly with Hiking gear and where to put it – Carry On or Checked Luggage?

FLYING to a hike!

Every Airline is different, so please check the actual airline you're flying with.

REX AIRLINES BRISBANE TO ROMA –

<https://www.rex.com.au/FlightInfo/DangerousGoods.aspx>

This list here has been checked with Rex airlines in Roma office Maranoa Travel with the girls (let's hope they gave me correct information). Please do your own research on top of reading this. Thanks.

No gas or fuel ever to be taken on a plane!

STOVE HEADS can be taken in your underneath checked in luggage without declaring (picture attached) check airline.

A LIGHTER- only one per person and MUST be carried on your body in your pocket; not in carry on or checked luggage.

1 packet of Matches allowed, must be carried on your body in pocket; not carry on or checked luggage. (Check airline)

HEADLAMPS- Any batteries MUST be in Carry-on Luggage!

POWER BANK BATTERY CHARGES - Carryon luggage only

PLB/Garmin In-reach - carryon luggage or checked (doesn't matter)

HAND SANITIZER - Carry-on luggage as it's a flammable liquid.

Anything that may explode and cause fire 🔥 must go inside the plane as carry-on luggage. As they can put a fire out easy. IF YOU Choose to put the explosive items Underneath as checked in baggage a whole load of people May DIE!! 💀💀💀🔥🔥🔥 stay smart.

SHARP OBJECTS Ex... Hiking poles, poop 🦄 Shovel, scissors, tweezers, tent pegs, knife plus more .. MUST GO UNDER THE PLANE - In CHECKED BAGGAGE!

All Knives must be in checked luggage.

Zip ties, Duct Tape, strapping tape, Rope or string must go under the plane on checked baggage.

Any item that could stab, bang the staff on a head or tie up them up - MUST Go UNDER THE PLANE AS CHECKED BAGGAGE. 🙌🙌

We all have different hiking stoves – be sure to check the rules out for yours and then SCREEN SHOT THE RULES OF THE AIRLINE YOU'RE TRAVELING WITH AS SECURITY STAFF OFTEN DONT KNOW.

A hiker from our group lost her bran new JETBOIL 😞😞😞😞

Send an email to the airline you are travelling with if unsure and keep handy at airport. (that's what I do)

Always confirm these rules on the actual airline you are flying with.

There maybe a couple of small errors here. It's a basic guide for when you are packing and flying.
